The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by D'Hooren (US Patent 6,096,251).

D'Hooren disclose a dual use injection molding tool comprising a male part 1 and a female part 2, the molding tool capable of both high and low pressure injection molding depending upon the position of a lifter 12. See Figs. 1A-1E.

Applicant's arguments filed 5-15-06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues the reference to D'Hooren does not disclose every feature of the claimed invention. The Examiner disagrees. In Fig. 1B is shown a first injection phase having a first pressure while Fig. 1D shows a second injection phase where a lifter 12 moved from a retracted state to an extended state prevents thermoplastic material from venting along the periphery of the mold. The pressure in Fig. 1D is greater than in Fig. 1B due to the packing of the thermoplastic when in a closed state.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
